

Cradles to Crayons

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Day of Service—Collection Drive

“It’s a day on, not a day off.”

Monday, January 16, 10am–1pm Only

We need your new and like-new children’s items!

We are proud to participate in Greater Philadelphia’s Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Day of Service with donation drop-off sites for local children in need. Cradles to Crayons® is going region-wide in its largest product collection of the year—collecting critically needed items for children ages 0–12 in all five counties in the Greater Philadelphia Region.

Local Collection Site

only between 10am-1pm

January 16, 2017

Lower
Providence
Presbyterian Church

3050 Ridge Pike

Eagleville, PA
19403

Coordinated by Girl Scouts

email gsepTroop7288@gmail.com

Donate your new & gently used:

- Baby equipment (strollers, car seats, pack-n-plays, etc. No cribs)
- Baby hygiene items (New wipes, shampoo, lotion, powder, etc.)
- Children’s winter clothing (sizes 0-14/16, adult smalls)
- Crib & bassinet bedding (blankets & sheets only)
- Diapers, diaper bags, baby carriers
- New socks & underwear
- School supplies (New)
- Sneakers & winter boots (sizes 0-adult 9)
- Winter coats (sizes 0-14/16, adult smalls)
- Winter hats & gloves

Cradles to Crayons provides children from birth through age 12, living in homeless or low-income situations, with the essential items they need to thrive—at home, at school, and at play. We supply these items free of charge by engaging and connecting communities that have with communities that need.

